MAY TRAP BEAVER

The Following Letter From the Chief Game Guardian Will Be of Interest to Many in This District

Sir.—I beg to advise you that under the conditions existing in many sections of the Province whereby beaver are causing considerable inconvenience and damage. Provision has been made by the Legislature under Section 62 of the Game Act, whereby the Lieutenant Governor in Council may adopt regulations to meet such conditions, where beaver are causing damage to property. An order has been passed authorizing the undersigned to issue permits to any person or persons south of the 55th parallel who are suffering damage, or are likely to suffer damage, to destroy their dams or to trap and kill any beaver on their lands. Such permits cost $1.00 and all pelts taken will be forwarded to the Department. Agreement will be made and paid by tender. Seventy-five per cent. of the proceeds of any such sale will be forwarded to the owner of the skins, the remainder to be deposited in the General Revenue Fund of the Province.

In no case will a permit be granted to any person to trap on any land other than that owned by him, or written permission from the owner of the land and forwards the same to this Department, and of course, any traps taken on lands other than those described in the permit are liable to confiscation and the trapper liable to a penalty.

You are at liberty to furnish the information to all persons who are interested, as well as to your local newspaper.

I am, Sir,
Your obedient servant,
BENJ. LAWTON,
Chief Game Guardian.

THE HOME CIRCLE

The third annual meeting of the Home Circle was held at the home of Mrs. J. W. Walker on February 19th. Officers were elected as follows: President, Mrs. T. R. Evans; first vice-president, Mrs. G. Smith; second vice-president, Mrs. D. Simmons; secretary-treasurer Mrs. P. J. Peters.

At the close of the meeting Mrs. Slipp, the retiring president, was presented with a very pretty piece of cut glass accompanied by the following address:

Dear Mrs. Slipp.—We take this opportunity to convey to you our sincere gratitude for the very able manner in which you have fulfilled the duties devolved upon you as president of the Home Circle and captain of our Red Cross unit. It is with feelings of deep regret we contemplate your removal from our community, where your influence for good has been felt for so long a time. Need we assure you that your departure from us from our midst could induce us to seek another leader. We ask you to accept our good wishes for your future prosperity and happiness and this gift as a slight remembrance of And Lang Syne.

Signed:
YOUR FRIENDS OF THE HOME CIRCLE.

A WORTHY SUCCESSOR

An announcement has recently been made of the appointment of George L. Lacombe, B.S., of Lacombe, as successor to Dr. J. G. Rutherford, C.M.G., as Superintendent of Agriculture and Animal Industry for the Canadian Pacific Railway, with headquarters at Calgary.

Mr. Hutton, who for twelve years has been Superintendent of the Dominion Experimental Station at Lacombe, is well and favorably known among the live stock and agricultural interests of Western Canada. His work at Lacombe has always been characterized by its practicality and thoroughness, and he has succeeded in bringing that farm to the front rank.

The Canadian Pacific Railway has indeed been fortunate in its choice of a successor to Dr. Rutherford, who has been so signal a success in directing the huge agricultural enterprise of the corporation. He has a speciality qualified by training and experience, for the work and should do well in the new position to which he certainly takes.

He is a member of the profession of the West, and many friends will be pleased to know that Western Canada is still to have the benefit of his valuable services.

RESPECTING INVESTMENTS

To the Average Man—Some one to bound your space dollars, say nothing of your space dollars, 25 cents a month, the question is, who will it be? Will it be some one with a "gold brick," or will it be the Government which, in return, will pay you good interest? That's the question.

You know that in the making of investments you have made bad mistakes. You have put hard earned money into things which will not now compensate you a return. More than this, you have lost your principal. You can't afford to do this any longer.

You had better let the Government have your spare dollars; it will even accept 25 cents from you. In buying War Saving Stamps you let it have the use of your money for five years, for which it paid 4% per cent. compounded half-yearly.

I am, Sir,

Your obedient servant,
BENJ. LAWTON,
Chief Game Guardian.

War Savings Campaign Started

A meeting in the interests of the War Savings Campaign was held in the Council Chamber on Wednesday last. Sergeant Gittus, the organizer for Southern Alberta, was present and gave an interesting talk in which he showed the necessity of the people of Canada financing the government during the reconstructive period through which we are passing. It is shown that Canada must become a self-supporting nation if it would gain access to the markets of the world.

The following committee was appointed:

Executive Committee: R. K. Peck, chairman; O. Williams, secretary; J. W. Walker, Jas. McKinney, Wm. Knight, R. S. Law, Misses McMillan, Committee: Rev. Mr. McLean, Rev. F. L. Lee, H. Vanaman, W. Miller, Mr. Clark, Mrs. Watt, Mrs. Renée, Mrs. McEwen, Mrs. W. J. Green, Mr. McEwen, Mr. J. Green, Arrangements were made to place the stamp for sale in the stores, and the principal and teachers of the school are planning to encourage saving among the school children.

Maude, Henderson Company Coming

The management of the Opera House takes pleasure in announcing to its patrons that it has been successful enough to entitle the popular Maude Henderson Company for a three nights' engagement beginning March 6th. They will present all new plays. They will play with the usual success.

Little Nellie, the latest success of the company, will be presented again in the play. The company carries new vaudeville features this season. Don't fail to see Little Nellie Hall in her lightning changes, specialties. See advertising advertisement in this issue for prices, etc.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 28, 1919

The farmers on the Star Line road are suggesting that the Province some of that million dollars collected last year by the government be used to clear the road so it will be possible for their autos. In places the road is drilled full of snow to the fence tops and it will be weeks before a car can get through if no clearing work is done. The first two miles east of the railroad tracks is said to be in the worst condition.

"Thrift and war stamps should be the nucleus of a new national movement that will have a potent influence in easing the difficulties of reconstruction and in converting Canadians into a saving people," said Major-General A. J. McRae to joint meeting of the Canadian and Royal Engineers on the Board of Trade, Glasgow. He urged universal participation in the thrift campaign, stating emphatically: "Thrift is now a duty; soon it will become a necessity."

Every school, store, wholesale house, elevator, railway station, retailer, hotel, eating house, factory, workshop, hospital, provincial office, Dominion office, every office in Alberta, will soon be a saving agency for thrift stamps and war savings stamps if the plans of the campaign organizers do not fail through. People are getting to know what thrift stamps mean, and a demand for them is springing up in every community. The more you do for them they provide an easy means for profitable saving but that they assist in furnishing employment for returned soldiers and to aid Canada to finance her own operations.

A part of British Columbia that is beginning to loom large in the matter of fruit production is the Creston Valley, of which the town of Creston is the nucleus. The number of varieties of fruit now grown there have been famously known throughout southern Alberta, the year 1918 saw this favored section taking a prominent place in apple production, with a total export of almost 50,000 boxes, while enormous strides forward have also been made in other lines such as pears, plums, plums, etc. In tomato crop of last year 16,000 crates of tomatoes were shipped and 4,000 green, while in potatoes just under 400 tons were shipped to prairie points. The yield of strawberries, which was below normal owing to a dry spell in the middle of the season, was over 10,000 crates while about 7,000 crates of raspberries were also shipped. The market for fruit in the valley is almost in its infancy as only about 30 per cent of the 2,000 acres planted to fruit trees is yet bearing. To ensure of the quality of Creston apples the board of trade of that town has favored The Review Advertiser with a box of three winter varieties, the size of which and spring ripening are certainly second to none. All three varieties are in absolutely perfect condition. In addition to its orchards Creston Valley ranchers are showing wisdom in seeing to it that dairying, poultry and cattle raising are not neglected. Breeding also is a strong point of the valley, with its collection of horses reaching almost three tons. The valley is blessed with a climate that sees the minimum of cold weather, but an abundant snow and rainfall that renders irrigation unnecessary. Possibly Creston Valley's best asset is its close proximity to the prairie market, the straw market at Creston reaching as far as Edmonton in time to be sold for supper consumption the following evening.

The Coyote Pelt is Worth Big Money

If the ranchers and sheep growers had their wish, there would be no coyotes in North America. The ranchers and sheep growers say that the only thing coyotes are made for is to kill cattle and sheep. This is a wrong impression. The coyotes must have some other calling in life, for they are not the kind of animal that can be killed when it said, "Nothing was made in vain." "My opinion of it," says Mr. A. B. Shubert, president of

A. B. Shubert, Inc., Chicago, U.S.A., the largest house in the world dealing exclusively in American fur, "is that the coyote is here to give us the gosh and goshen, the marmot and marmot, who by the way, makes good use of the good coyote pelt, but has little use for the poor ones. The best dressed and dyed coyotes are long in the tail, and on account of the great popularity of the animal, coyotes are among the highest prices ever known. The coyote is the only fur-bearer that can be used in imitation of fox."

The poorer grades of coyote are being used for trimmings, lap robes, etc. The skin is large and requires but little work—it is an easy task.

Seventy-five per cent of the collection of coyotes now on the market are used in America. Our manufacturers know better how to use them and our dyers dye them better than the English.

We make better and more attractive articles out of coyote than are produced anywhere. A soft, silky coyote, dressed and dyed, and made into an animal skin can easily be distinguished from a fox except by an expert; so trappers get after the coyote and trap as many as you can, as the price will pay well for your time and efforts.

To the Clarensom Red Cross Society:

I wish to thank you sincerely for the money you have given to us kindly soul, and who arrived in good order this morning.

I rejoice with you that the war is ended in our favor, and we have a splendid victory, and we have a prosperous and speedy return home. All through we have had the greatest encouragement and backing by such societies as yours, and the money you have given should be blazoned in gold on the roll of history. In memorial of your continued effort we expect to have a big Christmas dinner tomorrow of geese and Christmas puddings.

We are now just waiting for

Letter to Mary

Dear Sister Mary:

Tom and I reached a most momentous conclusion the other evening. Our children are growing up—very fast it seems to us—and I suppose that you are growing up too. Florence has just turned 16. Naturally, at that age she is growing up, but she is also growing up in every proper pride in welcoming them to a worthy home. Then too the others, Bobby, now 10 years old; Fred, Mary and Beth, are getting to an age of realization of just what a life is.

As Tom has said it is not a business and money making proposition, but pretty nearly the opposite. For the sake of Florence we cannot afford to wait another month, but we will let the contract within the next 10 days. We have nearly completed our plans, and are awaiting the arrival of just what a house will be, and when Tom knows very well. Can't you imagine my excitement in the coming realization of my dreams of a real home.

Will be over soon to show you the delightful pantry and linen closet planned.

Your loving sister,

FLORENCE.

Peace Conference Has Decided To Adjourn

London. — The peace conference at Paris has decided to adjourn as a result of the attack upon Premier Clemenceau, says an Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Paris.

The conservative committee on assembly passed a resolution presented by Premier Hughes of Australia, expressing sympathy for M. Clemenceau and denouncing the attempted assassination.

The commission for the study of Russian territorial questions met under the chairmanship of Captain Andre Tardieu and continued discussion of the claims of Romania, according to a communiqué issued by the commission.

Paris. — Prospects of an early accomplishment of its objects by the peace conference have been materially clouded by the sounding of Premier Clemenceau's name in a resolution.

While the actual sound might not be serious for one in the prime of life, the effect of the shot, upon a man of M. Clemenceau's age gives ground for the fear that at best his influence will be limited.

The work of the conference will be limited. Proceedings of the conference to date, however, have rather suggested that Mr. Clemenceau is one of three indispensable members of the conference. Premier Clemenceau speaks for France with authority that no other public man can exercise, and in his absence from the council when peace is signed, it is expected the interests of France come up for consideration may improve.

None of the difficult and in some measure dangerous questions in which France is involved has yet been decided. These include territorial problems in Syria, Africa, the fixing of a new eastern frontier, reparations and indemnities.

There had been a growing hope that as a result of protests from various quarters that would attempt to be heard at the peace conference, the indications were for three weeks of steady hard work with but little to report in the interval. All the interested were held to be in a position to add definite reports to the conference by the middle of March, and it was expected that following the return of President Wilson, whose decisions would be submitted with the consent of the Senate, and referred to the peace conference for consideration.

Report Is Denied

London. — A belated American dispatch says that according to Berlin officials, President Wilson's note of the German armistice commission handed to the allied commission a note describing as "pure invention" the report that Germany was not despatching and had assembled eighteen divisions in the neighborhood of the Rhine.

Ask Explanation

Stockholm. — It is learned that the American minister here, after a conference with the Swedish foreign office, has transmitted his communication to the allied governments at the peace conference, a suggestion from the Siberian government that Sweden, which since America's entry into the war has been holding the interests of German and Austrian prisoners on behalf of the Siberian government, ask for permission to release the prisoners on an exchange prisoners by the way of Vladivostok. The communication also asks that tonnage and foodstuffs be placed at the disposal of Sweden so that the transfer can be made.

Want Representative Meeting

National Industrial Conference Will Be Convened on February 27

London. — The ministry of labor announced yesterday that the conference will be convened on February 27 at Westminster, and that it is desired that the conference be as fully representative of British labor as possible.

According to unofficial statements,

500 invitations have been issued and Sir Robert S. Horne, labor minister, will preside. The conference is expected to make its report by the end of March.

An emergency meeting of the consultative committee of labor's tripartite alliance, it has been agreed that, in view of the government's decision in calling the conference, "nothing should be done precipitately to bring the trades union movement into disrepute."

Dual Leadership Suggested

Ottawa. — Succession to Sir Wilfrid Laurier as leader of the opposition continues the one topic of political discussion. Mr. Laurier's name appears most in favor, although there is some disposition to question whether he would be acceptable to the French members who would constitute a majority in the party of progress. A meeting is to be held in the quarters that some form of dual leadership with Mr. Fielding and Mr. Lemire might be arranged for this session.

Two Subs for Canada

London. — The British admiralty has offered as a gift to the Canadian naval forces two submarines now at Harwich. Sir Robert Borden, on behalf of the dominion, has accepted the offer.

The lords commissioners of the admiralty trust that this gift will be accepted as a mark of recognition of the great services rendered by the Canadian naval forces in the course of the war.

Farmers Ask For Reforms

Non-Partisan League Holds Reval and Emphasizes Old and New Settlements

Calgary, Alta. — At a convention of the Alberta Non-Partisan League, resolutions were passed calling for organization of the province for political action and cooperation with the U.S.A. in federal action; repeal of the war tax; and the right of all to emphasize the right of women to sit in the federal parliament; favoring the forming of a council consisting of U.S.A. trades unions and organized farmers to study the U.S.A. policy and the treatment of aliens; demanding that the government find employment for all who desire work by organizing industry for service and labor; and that the government that provides the means to permit all aliens who wish to return to their native land and in the case of those who remain employment be found for them at the government's expense.

Other resolutions called for freedom of the press and of speech, the enactment into law of the order-in-council providing inter-provincial shipments of horses, the treatment of all tubercular patients, and lastly demanding a drastic tax on incomes, especially the large ones, which shall not be less than the minimum of that required in the United States.

Britain Faces

Responsible Task

Viscount Bryce Delivers Message to Canadian Citizens in London

London. — Viscount Bryce has urged the British to be the kindred who do more for the welfare of mankind than any other people," declared Viscount Bryce at a meeting of Canadian citizens in London.

Viscount Bryce continued, "that we as an empire never fall in this great and responsible task. Many of you are returning to your native land of honor and distinction that you have won for your part in the war throughout the empire, but civilization. You will be honored by succeeding generations as the heroes of Trafalgar and Waterloo are honored."

Viscount Bryce returned home with a full appreciation of how much Great Britain loves her dominions, and how grateful she is for the golden services they have rendered to her.

Viscount Bryce said that the services only received by the dominions were only received by the dominions. Do not forget what vast power for good there is in the people of Britain and the dominions in much as with all the other races of the world. It is impossible to exaggerate the wonderful influence that the tongue of the British races has upon the other peoples of the world."

Foe Inserts New Phrases Into Text of Armistice

Under Foreign Office

Basel. — The German armistice commission, will in the future be under control of the foreign office, according to an unofficial dispatch from Berlin received here. Foreign Secretary Brockdorff-Schönau will be responsible for the administrative directions of the post-war period.

The German note says: "First—The German government's protest communication to the press by the German armistice delegation contains 'flagrant inaccuracies which require immediate correction,' declares an official note issued by the note says:

First—The German government's protest communication to the press by the German armistice delegation contains 'flagrant inaccuracies which require immediate correction,' declares an official note issued by the note says:

The German government is conscious of the grave consequences that acceptance or refusal of the armistice must entail."

In the same note, a whole new phrase has been inserted into the text communicated to the press as follows:

"Ask $15 Increase

Winnipeg. — A fat increase of $15 per month for all civil employees is demanded by the Canadian civil service commission to be held in the special council meeting to be held on the 15th of February.

On the same day, a new phrase in the wages question, it is learned, increased cost of living is the basic of the demand. The demand if granted, will add $170,000 to the city's payroll.

It cannot yet be said if we are able to follow the instructions of the allied armistice commission.

This phrase does not figure in the text as given to Marshal Foch by Erzberger.

This German note was handed to Marshal Foch before the signing of the armistice and was accepted by him. From our point of view it then must be considered as forming part of the new armistice convention.

Marshal Foch has already informed the president of the German nation several times that the texts duly signed by the allied and enemy plenipotentiaries alone form part of the armistice convention. This note does not come within that category. It is absolutely independent of the convention. It constitutes a mere manifestation of the Frankfort activity of Scheidemann.

Third—Finally, Erzberger alleging certain pretended declarations of Marshal Foch has affirmed that:

"Four parades would be opened at an early date, the question of peace probably."

The fact is that Marshal Foch categorically refused to give the slightest intimation this subject notwithstanding the lively insistence of Erzberger.

Cottin Son of French Workman

Was Reader of Novels and Books on Astronomy and Sociology

Paris. — Emile Cottin, who attempted to assassinate Premier Clemenceau, was taken to state prison. Examination of the automobile in which the premier was riding when he was fired upon showed seven different drivers.

The father and mother of Emile Cottin, the would-be assassin of Premier Clemenceau, are simple working people. They live in Rue Convention. They have a brother in a factory in Issy Les Moulineaux. The brother aged 17, also works in a factory there. A second brother is five and a half years old.

The son of the family describes Emile Cottin as being addicted to neither smoking nor drinking, but says he was a great reader of novels and books on astronomy and sociology. His father tried in vain to dissuade him from his anarchist sympathies, but the son was determined to go on with his heretical ideas. In this he was successful, but the father ridiculed him as being old-fashioned. When he heard the news of the attempted assassination, the father was at work, but felt that his son was safe. It is said, that the criminal was his son.

Emile Cottin was under treatment for an affection of the heart and a disease of the larynx.

THE COMMERCIAL CLUB

Has our community a Commercial Club? How often does it meet? Once a year or every day? What is our club doing to increase its membership? Has it buried the last of the knee-bones? How many factors has it secured to its membership? How many new members are added every day. There is something doing all the time. The greatest energy is expended on boosting the home market. Every day works at this, and the result is the Commercial Club puts the town on the map as a live community. This is all that a good town is. Is our club in this class? Are we content to be anything less than the best? Let's get into that class, and work each day to stay there.

Viceroy Utters Warning

Reaction Against Authority Unlikely

Leave India Untouched

Delhi. — In opening the legislative session, Lord Chelmsford, the viceroy, said that the Indian people, who had enabled the public peace to be maintained during the war should be repaid by adequate subsidies. The result of a general strike which had manifested itself in many parts of the world was unlikely to leave India untouched. The government, he added, could not shut its eyes to the undoubted existence of a movement of discontent in India, but he hoped that the British government would not be blamed for having delayed too long the declaration of the award, and his weakness caused the rise of socialism, according to a Berlin newspaper.

It is another reason why we require to maintain a large force, he said, to do what was necessary to maintain the vital interests of the country. Let the Indians work for their own benefit, he said, and we will be able to help them. We are going to do more in this direction, and we will be able to make sure that the soldiers regard their service as a career.

"The British people have never failed to do what was necessary to maintain the vital interests of the country. Let the Indians work for their own benefit, he said, and we will be able to help them. We are going to do more in this direction, and we will be able to make sure that the soldiers regard their service as a career.

He said that British money had fostered dissatisfaction in the navy and had led to the military collapse last November.

The speakers, it is said, asserted that the peasant union would be loyal to the monarchist movement.

Condemn Action of Jugoslavs

Italy Does Not Like Idea of Arbitration

Rome. — The Italian press indignantly condemns the step taken by the Jugoslavs in asking that President Wilson arbitrate conflicting claims to territories along the Adriatic. The Epocho says:

"Arbitration is a means for an peace, not war, concluding it when it has already been decided by arms."

"Italy can dispense the unworthy attacks brought against her," says the Idea Nazionale. "She must keep a sharp sword and a strong faith in her."

In that way she was able to give her hereditary enemies a mortal blow. Now so her best blood shall not have been shed in vain."

The Sorriso d'Italia says: "It is not the Jugoslavs who are to blame, and their friends will take advantage of the effect of the Italian refusal to submit territorial claims to arbitration on public opinion in other countries. But this attempt, we do not doubt will fail."

Return Stolen Treasure

London.—Enormous treasure train from Vienna to Trieste, says the London Daily Telegraph, was carried off by bandits. The bandits, however, had to leave the train because of the arrival of the police.

Two bullets were fired at the bandits, but they escaped. One bullet hit the bandit who had been carrying the treasure train, and he died.

At the time of his attempted assassination, M. Clemenceau had just left his home to drive in a motor car to

Why Rantau Resigned

Basel. — Count von Brockdorff-

Rantau, the German foreign minister, told the German cabinet that he would resign if Germany's conditions in the armistice were not met.

He was rejected, according to a Berlin dispatch, to the Frankfurter Zeitung. He said it would be impossible for him to continue his foreign policy while the French were "notoriously" at a resumption of hostilities.

When the armistice was signed the foreign minister resigned. The cabinet rejected him to remain in office, which he then consented to do.

Premier of France

Shot by Anarchist

Paris. — Premier Clemenceau, char acterized by Lloyd George as "France's grand old man," was attacked by an anarchist, Emile Cottin, known as "Milon." Seven shots were fired, three of which struck the premier. One bullet lodged in the muscles of the shoulder, penetrating deeply, but as far as it is at present known, did not injure any vital organs.

He was admitted to the hospital, where he was cheered throughout the day despite occasional fits of coughing. For the present, it has been decided by the surgeons that the premier is in no danger.

The conference with Asafer J. Balkow, British secretary for foreign affairs, and Col. Edward M. House, of the American peace delegation, though broken, was continued. M. Clemenceau was able to return to his home, where he reassured the members of his household and waved aside anxious enquires with "It is nothing." Latest reports from his attendants are to the effect that the condition was not serious, but that he was cheered throughout the day despite occasional fits of coughing.

For the present, it has been decided by the surgeons that the premier is in no danger, and arrangements have been made for the taking of radiographs of the injured parts.

War to Peace

To Solve Canada's Employment Problem

EVERYONE in Canada should understand just what the Government is doing to solve the unemployment problems that may arise through the demobilization of our fighting forces.

(1) Employment Offices.

So that everyone—male or female, soldier or civilian—can get quickly such jobs as are available the Government is co-operating with the Provinces in establishing a chain of Public Employment Offices. Employers are being urged to make use of these offices to secure any help they need. Farmers, for example, who need hired men should apply to the nearest office. There will be a Public Employment Office in every town of 10,000 people—and wherever the need for one exists. There will be 60 different offices in all—one-half are already in operation.

(2) Employment Opportunities.

The war held up much work that will now be carried on at once. Public works, shipbuilding, roadbuilding, railway work—construction of bridges, improvement of road-bed, making of new equipment—these will provide new opportunities for employment. In addition, the Government has sent a Trade Mission overseas to secure for Canada a share in the business of providing materials and products required for reconstruction work in Europe. It has also set aside the large sum of $25,000,000 to be loaned through the Provinces to encourage the building of workmen's houses. This will mean much new work in the spring.

(3) Land and Loans for Soldiers.

To help soldiers become farmers the Government has developed a programme that includes the providing of land, the granting of loans, and the training and supervision of those inexperienced in farming. At present, the soldier is granted, free, in addition to his ordinary homestead right, one quarter-section of Dominion lands. He also receives a loan up to the maximum of $2,500.

These original plans are now being broadened. If Parliament passes the new proposals during this session, the Soldier Settlement Board will be able to buy suitable land and resell it to the soldier at cost.

Land up to the value of $5,000 may be bought by this plan—the money to be repaid in 20 years. The low interest rate of 3 per cent. will be charged. These new proposals will also permit the Soldier Settlement Board to loan the soldier-farmer up to $2,500 for purchasing equipment, etc., in addition to $5,000 loan on his farm.
